Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner,

I am writing you this letter on behalf of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy.

For we would be most honored if you would visit Fletcher at some future date to speak on an intelligence related topic of your choice. The lecture would be solely for the benefit of the Fletcher community. In addition, if it would be feasible for you, we would like you to present your lecture during a weekday evening so that we could hold a dinner in your honor.

Many members of the Fletcher faculty, including Ambassador Gullion, Dean John Roche, and Professor Uri Ra'anani, are fully aware of my approach to you, and would warmly welcome your presence here.

I have arranged for the School to follow up my letter to you with more detailed information regarding logistics, security, and other necessary arrangements. The date and time for the lecture can be at your discretion. Please bear in mind, however, that the periods between November 23 and November 28 and December 16 to January 23 would be inconvenient for us as Fletcher is in recess during those times for Thanksgiving and Christmas respectively.

I hope that your time schedule will allow you to make an affirmative reply to my request. If you have any questions or wish to discuss this letter, please feel free to contact me. I appreciate any consideration you can extend to Fletcher.

Yours truly,

Robert S. Frank
